Unconditional

2011, United Kingdom

This gritty coming-of-age film, about a slick businessman who seduces a financially disadvantaged, teenaged boy into wearing women's clothes, is a potent mix of class, gender, sexual and generational tensions. With excellent performances by Harry McEntire (who gamely plays the beautiful, pliant Owen) and Christian Cooke (who effectively captures the sometimes charming, oftentimes depraved older suitor, Liam), "Unconditional" may appear quite unconventional on the surface, but ultimately it's a universal story about discovering who you are.

9:30 p.m., June 22, Castro Theatre
